

4 December 2023

Singaporean Athletes Take Podium Places in Minahasa, North Sulawesi, Indonesia

Oliver Quentin Meech wins 1st place in Open Men Surf category

Alfian Affandi wins 3rd place in Open Men Skim category

14 Wakeboard and Wakesurf athletes from Singapore travelled to Minahasa, North Sulawesi Indonesia this past week to compete in the inaugural IWWF Asia Wakefest Minahasa 2023 at Lake Tondano from 24th to 26th November 2023.

The athletes faced very tough competition that included a total of 70 participants from Chinese Taipei, Singapore, Thailand, Hong Kong and Indonesia (this is one of three stops of the 2023 IWWF Asia Wakefest series) and we would like to congratulate the following athletes for their commendable performance:

Quentin Oliver Meech: 1st place in the Open Men Surf category
 Alfian Affandi: 3rd in the Open Men Skim category
 Merelda Lee: 3rd place in the Open Women Surf category
 Wong Wai Ping: 3rd place in the Open Women Skim category
 Antong Aminullah: 3rd place in the Amateur Men Surf category

Other athletes who put up a good fight and made it to the Finals in their respective categories include:

Cheng Xiao Ya, Xiao Han and Fong May Ee: Amateur Women Surf category
Gooi Jia Yi: Open Women Wakeboard category

Full results can be found at: <https://iwwf.asia/event/iwwf-asia-wakefest-minahasa-2023/>

“It was very exciting to have a large contingent of wake sport athletes travel and compete again in an international competition. We hope to have more opportunities in 2024 and also have our sports included in future SEA Games”, said Frankie Ng, the SWWF’s (Singapore Waterski & Wakeboard Federation) new President.